

Sharing Strategies from the Nonviolent Crisis Intervention Training
Program: A Free Workshop for AID Parents & Caregivers

Wednesday, November 5, 2008, 3:00 pm - 7:00 PM

Presenters: Krystal Spracklen & Lisa Heberg,
Authorized CPI Instructors for AID

It will provide:

1. An understanding of the philosophy of Nonviolent Crisis Intervention which includes Care, Welfare, Safety and Security.
2. An overview of some concepts and strategies to manage challenging verbal and/or physical behaviors during a crisis.
3. Effective verbal interventions to help calm a person who is upset or angry.
4. Knowledge of realities involved in the use of physical restraints.

Where:

309 West New Indian Trail Ct. Aurora, IL 60506

There is no cost to attend this event.

To register call Alisa at 630-966-4117. Registration deadline is Friday, October 31.

Care for individuals with disabilities is available - please provide information upon registration.

